"Read All About It" is a story that weaves together emergent literacy, agency and social connections. Bing Nursery School teachers will examine the creation and sharing of newspapers in their classroom of three to five year old children. The presenters will share pedagogical and practical information as well as techniques and strategies as they relate to a daily newspaper made by and for young children in a play-based, constructivist program.

When: December 6, 2022
Where: On zoom
Time: 7:00-8:30 PM PST

This virtual session is Bing’s Spring 2022 Educator Seminar
Registration Open via Eventbrite. Open to Early Childhood Educators. Limited to 100 participants.
For more information visit: bingschool@stanford.edu